Oct. 1 or 3 — Joint Ownership: the Good, the Bad, & the Risky

Tuesday, October 1, 10:30 am to 12:00 pm OR Thursday, October 3, 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Joint ownership of bank accounts, real estate, and vehicles is common for spouses. What can happen when a parent and child own property jointly? Learn about recent court cases that raise new cautions about joint ownership. Find out the original intent of joint ownership and why it may not fit for today's needs.

Oct. 8 or 10 — Tips for Making a Will & What Happens if Someone is Not Capable to make a Will?

Tuesday, October 8, 10:30 am to 12:00 pm OR Thursday, October 10, 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Some people are considered not capable of making a Will. This may be someone with a disability from birth or someone who delayed making a Will and now has advanced dementia or other condition. How is their estate settled? For the majority who can make a Will, get some tips and resources.

Oct. 22 or 24 — Myths & Realities of Planning

Tuesday, October 22, 10:30 am to 12:00 pm OR Thursday, October 24, 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Learn about the essential legal documents in BC for those who want to plan for incapacity, for end-of-life, and for after death. We will discuss Representation Agreements, Enduring Powers of Attorney, and Wills.

Oct. 29 — Consent: What is the law in BC for health care? Time to update old ideas and practices!

Tuesday, October 29, 10:30 am to 12:00 pm OR Tuesday October 29, 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Consent underlies many of our day-to-day interactions. Consent is also fundamental to encounters with the health care and residential care systems. There is lots of confusion about non-legal documents such as living wills, the Do-Not-Resuscitate form and Levels of Care forms, including MOST (medical orders for scope of treatment). Learn what IS law in BC.
